DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 18, 19, and 22 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 18, 19, and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Naito (6,857,502). Naito shows inserting into said intake section a removable cylindrical sleeve including an outer layer of porous material and an inner layer of porous material spaced radially inwardly of said outer layer (4a, 4c, fig. 1), supporting said layer of porous material with rigid stiffly flexible, expanded mesh layers (2a, fig. 1), removing the removable cylindrical sleeve from the intake section, and inserting another removable cylindrical sleeve into said intake section (mufflers are replaceable), an outer cylindrical duct defining an inner surface (3, fig. 2), and a removable cylindrical sleeve including: a porous layer adjacent said duct inner surface and defining an inner surface (4c, fig. 2); an outer rigid expanded mesh lining said inner surface of said porous layer and retaining said porous layer; and an inner cylinder mounted within said sleeve and extending coaxially therein and having an outer surface spaced radially inwardly from said outer expanded metal mesh said cylinder comprising a porous layer defining an outer surface and an outer expanded metal mesh surrounding and supporting said cylinder porous layer and defining said outer surface of said inner cylinder.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-11, 21 are allowed.

Claim 20 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
